

Why Join the Teamsters?

A voice on the job – Teamster workers have the right to negotiate with their employer over wages, benefits and working conditions. Without a union, Management has total control.

Strength in numbers – Teamster workers organize and negotiate for improvements as a group instead of on their own. Working together, dealing from a position of strength, and reaching achievements beyond the hopes of individuals is what gives us our strength.

A legal and binding written contract – An agreement to define and guarantee the terms and conditions of your employment. Your employer wouldn't dream of doing business without a contract, why should you?

Protection and support – The Teamsters police your workplace to ensure your rights are being upheld, and challenges any unfair or questionable employer decisions.

Improve industry standards – Unionizing strengthens and improves health and safety, economic and other standards within industries and professions.
